All statements in this application form have to be given truthfully and we would like to point out that we are, until cession of the rental object, contractually entitled to recede from the lease agreement if it is based on this application form and the application form contains false statements. A lease agreement that is based on false statements in the application form is furthermore voidable and subject to abnormal termination.

The information obligations acc. Art. 13 General Data Protection Regulation (Datenschutzgrundverordnung) are available on our homepage under menu item DATENSCHUTZ or alternatively as paper document in our business premises.

KWS will use personal data only for the process of placing flats and if applicable for the fulfilment of a contractual relationship arising from it. Proliferation to third parties will occur only as far as required by special legal regulation. Personal data collected during the application process will be stored by the enterprise for a period not exceeding 1 year. After this period all personal data no longer required will be destroyed according to data protection standards.

In the context of placing KWS may obtain information about the creditworthiness of applicants from Schufa AG Creditreform AG before signing the lease agreement:
